

JAMES JOYCE

1882

Born in Dublin

His family lost most of their prestige and wealth when he was a child

Father = supporter of independent Ireland

the leader of movement died

= failure in getting free from Britain for Joyce

AT THE BEGINNING

He wanted to become a priest

He studied modern languages

He changed his mind: he wanted to be a writer

His first works were refused

HE LEFT IRELAND

Due to his delusion and frustration for the political situation

he went to: Paris, Pola and Trieste

He had two children

He wrote Dubliners in Trieste

Outbreak 1ww: he went to Zurich

He wrote Ulysses, his masterpiece

Poor health and had an eye operation against blindness

Died in Zurich in 1941